He Swallowed a Bond, A resident of Chicago has filed a claim at the Treasury Department for the redemption of a $1,000 United States bond, which tion of a $1,000 United States bond, which, he says, he swallowed in order to prevent its falling into the hands of burgiars. It appears that while he was examining the bond in his room at a late hour in the night, he heard a noise in the passage, which he supposed was made by thieves, and acting on the impulse of the moment, he chewed the bond into a pulp and swallowed it. It was afterwards discovered that there were no grounds for his alarm. He now appeals to the government to make good his loss. The first comptroller has the claim under consideration.

In Memory of Elias Polk. Last Sunday, at the Israel M. E Church. memorial sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. R. S. Williams, in memory of pastor, Rev. R. S. Williams, in memory of Elias Polk, formerly a resident of Washington and member of this church. Mr. Polk was the slave and body servant of President Polk, from whom he took his name, and was trusted and esteemed by the President and his family. Mr. Williams, after a brief reference to Mr. Polk's life, spoke upon the subject of "the Triumph of Christianity Over Death," taking his text from Rev., xxi, 3, 4. The preacher showed how death comes to all alike, the rich, the poor, the great, the small, and how it is only the Christian who meets death calmly and unflinehingly. He besought his congregation to prepare for the coming of this dreaded guest, telling them such preparation consisted in love to God and to humanity; that it was in the power of all to be ity; that it was in the power of all to be prepared, and if they were not it would be the result of their own criminal choice.

Mrs. Valentine Baker's funeral procession passed through Alexandria on Sunday en route for Oak Hill Cemetery, Georgetown. The funeral of her husband took place the previous Sunday, and followed the same route.

The funeral of Wm. E. Bellomy also took place on Sunday afternoon in Alexandria, and was largely attended by railroad men from the Midland road, on which Mr. Bellomy was fatally injured a short time ago.

Mrs. Catherine Harrington, a white woman 55 years old, for sixteen months past occu-55 years old, for sixteen months past occupied a room in Christopher Johnson's house, 1002 Seventh street southeast. She disappeared three weeks ago and it was thought that she had gone out to wervice or was with relatives. Last Thursday a strong odor was discovered in the house and it was attributed to sewer gas until resterday morning when Mrs. Jahnson was passing Mrs. Harrington's door she noticed the odor again but more strongly. The room was entered and the dead body of Mrs. Harrington was found in bed covered up and badly decomposed.

The best medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will, by its own action, reach all the remote scree and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrn during the past few years obliges us to admit that only one remedy has completely met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This safe and pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. The more distressing symptoms quickly yield to it.

Catholic University. The pope gave a reception yesterday to the cardinals, bishops, and Roman prelates. the cardinals, bishops, and Roman prelates. His holiness spoke flatteringly of the extension and condition of the church in the United States. He spoke of the magnitude of the Catholic University project and approved its establishment. Bishop Keaue, of Richmond, was present, and replied on behalf of the American bishops to the pontiff's complimentary remarks.

Store will close to-day at 12 o'clock M.

More new spring goods arrived yesterday. Each and every department is now showing something new and novel. Black and colored silk fabrics came in for an unusual share of attention yesterday. We are acknowledged "Headquarters" for these goods, and are now showing a stock unequaled for variety and intrinsic value. Your silk money meets its better in this stock. As an evidence of the largeness and extensiveness of our silk department, we are showing 94 distinct shades in one particular line of Surah silk. We do not shelf-up with three or four duplicate pieces in order to cover a great deal of space. Of the stock in sight there is no two pieces alike. We expect to sell almost twice as much silk this spring as ever before. Spring Goods are being bought earlier every succeedng season. On the very first spring day the prome-nades will be resplendent with the gorgeousness of the coming season's fabrics and styles. Wash goods and French satteens are meeting with an unusually large sale, especially the latter, which more than ever resemble the elegant foulard silks. We are showing quite a number of patterns not to be found elsewhere. Strange we seldom think of Umbrellas and Gossamers until it rains.

In view of the approaching season of showers, it behooves all careful persons to prepare therefor. We have laid in a large stock of both, and call attention to the Genuine Gloria Cloth Umbrellas, of a superior quality, at $2.53 for 26-inch; $3 for 28-inch,

Opened yesterday: 1 case of silver gray rubber raglans, adjustable monk's hood close-fitting back, loose front, large sleeves, warranted "rain-proof," worth $3, on'y $2.25 each.

Standard Goods at Popular Prices I

The "Harris" Cassimeres are known all over the United States as strictly first-class goods, both as regards style and durability. A fortunate purchase of some entire lines of these goods at the mills in spring weights enables us to make them up to order at prices never known in Washington before. Our assortment is large and varied. Some are in quiet patterns, some in checks and plaids, and still others in stripes.

The goods go into our custom department on Wednesday, Feb. 23, and we mark them— $22.50 for Suits, and $6 for Pants.

We cut them in the latest and most popular styles, and guarantee good fits, Last winter we had very large sales in a line of rough, wire-twist Cheviots in checks, plaids, and homespun weaves. We have a fine line of these goods in spring styles that we are making to order at $20 for suits and $5 for pants.

This make of goods gave our customers universal satisfaction in winter weights, and we don't think a better suit was ever sold in Washington at this price. Come and see them, or send for samples. Directions for measuring sent to customers out of the city. E. B. Barnum & Co., 931 Penn. Ave.
